Subject: Call for submitting texts for the periodical Makedonski Arhivist No. 35-36

The State Archives announces a call for submitting texts (articles) for the new double issue of the international science periodical Makedonski Arhivist No. 35-36, which publishes works from the field of archival theory and practice, works regarding the theory and methodology of studying and using written historical sources, representations of fonds from the State Archives and other archives, articles with historical contents, bibliographies, memoirs, etc.

This double issue is going to be published in 2024.

The works should be submitted in Macedonian language or one of the world languages (English, French, German and Russian). The abstract should be submitted both in Macedonian and English language, notwithstanding the language in which the article was written.

The redaction board of the Makedonski Arhivist periodical invites you to submit your works at the e-mail makedonski.arhivist@arhiv.gov.mk until 29 May 2024. This deadline should be observed by the authors, and the Redaction Board shall notify them until 21 June 2024 whether the submitted work was accepted, and for each of the works shall appoint a reviewer who shall review it anonymously.

The works should be written by applying the guidelines from The Guideline for Preparation of Texts for the Makedonski Arhivist Periodical, which can be found at the State Archives web-page.

The interested authors can obtain additional information and consultation on the e-mail makedonski.arhivist@arhiv.gov.mk.

Respectfully,
